1 The prototypes of a new suite of geometric pulls from Izé—in collaboration with Brooklyn-based GRT Architects—were initially created using brass sheets in several gauges and a jigsaw and file. IZE.INFO

2 The wall-mountable stainless steel Hook tap system from CEA Design features ergonomic handles that are reminiscent of smooth pebbles. CEADesign.IT

3 From the warm luster of Satin Brass to the aged look of Antique Florence, Ashley Norton's new range of gold-toned finishes pair with modern, clean lines for an added air of sophistication. ASHLEYNORTON.COM

4 Fabricut Contract's decorative drapery hardware line now includes metal offerings, which come in 11 finishes and with glass and metal finials, bent returns, and acrylic rings and poles. FABRICUTCONTRACT.COM

5 Offered in a variety of sizes, Rocky Mountain Hardware's Organic collection of four grips and pulls is defined by its contemporary appearance and bronze finishes. ROCKYMOUNTAINHARDWARE.COM
